Do You Know...

You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that you provided false or misleading information.

The information you provide on housing assistance application and recertification forms will be checked. The local housing agency, HUD, or the Office of Inspector General will check the income and asset information you provide with other Federal, State, or local governments and with private agencies. Certifying false information is fraud.

So Be Careful!

When you fill out your application and yearly recertification for assisted housing from HUD make sure your answers to the questions are accurate and honest. You must include:

All sources of income and changes in income you or any members of your household receive, such as wages, welfare payments, social security and veterans' benefits, pensions, retirement, etc.

Any money you receive on behalf of your children, such as child support, AFDC payments, social security for children, etc.

Any increase in income, such as wages from a new job or an expected pay raise or bonus.

All assets, such as bank accounts, savings bonds, certificates of deposit, stocks, real estate, etc., that are owned by you or any member of your household.

All income from assets, such as interest from savings and checking accounts, stock dividends, etc.

Any business or asset (your home) that you sold in the last two years at less than full value.

The names of everyone, adults or children, relatives and non-relatives, who are living with you and make up your household.

(Important Notice for Hurricane Katrina and Hurricane Rita Evacuees: HUD's reporting requirements may be temporarily waived or suspended because of your circumstances. Contact the local housing agency before you complete the housing assistance application.)

Ask Questions

If you don't understand something on the application or recertification forms, always ask questions. It's better to be safe than sorry.

Watch Out for Housing Assistance Scams!

- Don't pay money to have someone fill out housing assistance application and recertification forms for you.
- Don't pay money to move up on a waiting list.
- Don't pay for anything that is not covered by your lease.
- Get a receipt for any money you pay.
- Get a written explanation if you are required to pay for anything other than rent (maintenance or utility charges).

Incomplete applications will not be processed.

If an Applicant's Family composition changes resulting in a need for a different apartment size, management will, upon notification by Applicant, place the Family on the appropriate waiting list, maintaining their current waiting list status.

OCCUPANCY STANDARDS: Occupancy standards have been established to ensure that units are not overcrowded or underutilized. The number of occupants in a unit must be in accordance with the occupancy standards as set forth by The Housing Company based upon local law and Agency regulations. These occupancy standards are subject to change during the lease term if changes in laws, ordinances, or regulations make such changes necessary. The minimum occupancy limit will correspond to the number of bedrooms. The maximum occupancy limit will depend on local law and regulations, and the square footage of usable sleeping areas as defined by local law and suggested Agency guidelines. Notwithstanding the above, The Housing Company shall have the right to make reasonable accommodations for individuals with disabilities and may adjust occupancy limits to further the goal of providing reasonable accommodations. Minimum and maximum limits are as follows:

UNIT SIZE	MINIMUM	MAXIMUM

1. all full-time members of the household;
2. children who are away at school but live with the Family during school recesses;
3. children who are subject to a joint custody agreement but live in the unit at least 50% of the time;

6. live-in attendants; and
7. foster adults.

The management agent shall not provide bedroom space for persons who are not members of the household, such as adult children on active military duty, permanently institutionalized Family members, or visitors.

OVERCROWDED OR UNDER-UTILIZED UNITS: Units, which are smaller or larger than needed by the Applicant, may be assigned if doing so will not cause serious overcrowding. The action may not conflict with local codes and larger units than indicated by the number of household members may only be issued if no units of appropriate size are available. In such cases, the Family must agree to move to the correct sized unit, at its own expense, when one becomes available. After move-in, if a unit becomes overcrowded or under-used because of changes in household composition, the management agent will require the Family to move to an appropriate sized unit when one becomes available. If the resident refuses to move, the household must pay HUD-approved market rent to remain in the same unit. In such instances, transfers will take priority over any preference or Applicants on the waiting list.

PREFERENCES: Management will observe preferences listed below, prioritized in the order of the list:

Accommodation for Existing Residents: Requests for reasonable accommodation from existing residents requiring unit transfers will take priority over all waiting list Applicants. Accommodation results when a third-party-verified disability requires a change or repairs which make it easier for the existing resident to reside in the community. Reasonable costs associated with unit transfers or repairs will be covered by management, unless doing so will cause an undue financial and administrative burden.

Units Specifically Designed for Disabled or Handicapped Persons: When attempting to fill a unit that has features designed to meet the needs of disabled persons, management will grant a preference to households with Disabled members (who otherwise qualify) and need the accessible features of the unit. For example, units designed for accessibility to individuals with mobility, hearing or vision impairments, will be rented to households that require the features provided in those units. This preference will be granted upon proper notification by Applicant and verification of need by management.

Elderly Properties: Properties that are designed for the elderly must verify that the applicant household qualifies as an elderly household. An elderly household is one in which the head of household, spouse and/or co-head is 62 years of age or older, or disabled. A disabled person need not be 62 or older in order to qualify at certain properties designated for the elderly.

Extremely Low Income Households: Extremely Low Income Households, defined as households with income not exceeding 30% of the area median income (AMI) established by HUD and periodically updated, shall receive preference over households on the waiting list with incomes exceeding 30% AMI. Extremely Low Income Households will be selected from the waiting list in chronological order, and other eligible households will be housed after all Extremely Low Income Households on the waiting list have been housed. The Housing Company will continue to market units with efforts to reach the Extremely Low Income population. If there are no Extremely Low Income Households on the waiting list, other households will be housed in the order in which they have applied. This preference will be determined utilizing income stated on the application, but will be revoked at the discretion of management if Applicant has misstated income as determined by verification. The preference will be in place during the first six months of each calendar year or until such time during the year that the number of new move-ins rented to Extremely Low Income Households is equal to 40% of the average turn-over in the previous three years.

Transfers for Existing Tenants: No waiting list preference shall be granted to households seeking transfers (for reasons other than accommodation) between units in a specific apartment community or between apartment communities located within the same market area which are owned or managed by The Housing Company. Exceptions will be made for Emergency Transfers under VAWA. Other households seeking such transfers shall receive only chronological status on the waiting list.

PROCESSING STEPS: The development shall be rented and occupancy maintained on a first-come, first-served basis with preferences taken into consideration. All persons wishing to be admitted to the development or placed on the waiting list must complete an application and supply all documentation required. Prospective tenants submitting incomplete applications will not be considered for occupancy. The initial application shall be timed and dated when received, and the resident manager shall maintain at the rental office a chronological list of all Applicants (categorized on a bedroom size requirement). Applicants may be included on one or more waiting list, depending upon the needs of the Family and management's determination of overcrowding or under-utilization. Preference households and existing residents requiring unit transfers because of accommodation will move ahead of chronological status Applicants. Applicants shall be offered housing (after meeting all selection criteria requirements including the verification process), placed on the waiting list, or declined. Potentially eligible Applicants who have met tenant selection criteria, and for whom the right size unit is not available, will be placed on the waiting list and contacted when an appropriate unit becomes available. The Applicant must contact the development's resident manager every three (3) months to remain on the waiting list. Applicants who fail to provide acceptable landlord references, credit history, or who have a criminal background will be notified that they have been removed from the waiting list.

All Applicants will be provided with a copy of the Enterprise Income Verification brochure prior to move-in. The Housing Company utilizes EIV to determine if an applicant is receiving subsidy at another complex or through the Section 8 Voucher program. Each applicant's social security number will be used to run an "Existing Tenant Search" prior to move-in. Should other subsidy be discovered, the resident manager will work with the applicant to ensure that a dual subsidy situation does not occur. During tenancy, the EIV system will also be used to confirm that the tenant is not receiving subsidy elsewhere, and verify certain types of income, including social security, wages, and unemployment. It will also be monitored periodically to determine if a household member has obtained new employment during tenancy.

When an appropriate unit is available, the waiting list shall be reviewed to identify the Applicant who meets preference criteria or whose name is chronologically at the top of the list. The resident manager shall interview the Applicant; confirm and update all information provided on the application; update credit reports older than one year; obtain current information of income, expense and Family composition as applicable and necessary to certify eligibility and compute the resident's share of the rent. Each Applicant will be required to evidence citizenship and comply with the Social Security Disclosure Regulations which means each Family member must supply his/her Social Security number and verification of the same. The Applicant shall be informed that a final decision on eligibility cannot be made until all verifications are complete and current income has been verified.

Applicants, whose position on the waiting list enables application processing, will receive only two consecutive notices of housing availability. If the Applicant is unable or decides not to complete the application process, the Applicant shall be removed from the waiting list upon receiving the second notice and must reapply for eligibility.

OPENING & CLOSING THE WAITING LIST: The waiting list shall be updated every three months and may be closed for one or more unit sizes when the average wait for admission is excessive (e.g. one year or more). If the waiting list is closed, a notice will be published in the local newspaper, posted on our website and posted at the apartment community office. The same process will be followed when the waiting list is re-opened.

SCREENING CRITERIA: The following factors shall be considered in screening Applicant for occupancy:

1. Demonstrated ability to meet financial obligations and to pay rent on time.
2. History as a good resident.
3. History of disturbing neighbors or destroying property.
4. Applicant's credit history.
5. Ability to maintain (or with assistance would have the ability to maintain) the housing in a decent and safe condition based on living or housekeeping habits and whether such habits adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of the household and other residents in the community.
6. Ability to meet all obligations of tenancy.
7. Current use or history of using illegal drugs or current use or history of abusing alcohol in a way that may interfere with the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of others.

8. History of felony or misdemeanor convictions by any household member involving crimes of physical violence against persons or property, fraud, dishonesty and any other criminal activity including but not limited to Drug-Related Criminal Activity.
9. Any household member, including a Live-in Aide, has been evicted from assisted housing within three years as a result of Drug-Related Criminal Activity.
10. Any household member has Registered Sex Offender status, or is subject to a lifetime registration requirement under a state sex offender registration program.
11. Income Limit qualification.

Note: Live-In Aides will be screened for drug abuse and criminal activity, and must sign required release forms.

REFERENCES; CRIMINAL AND CREDIT HISTORY: Management will require consent of all adult household members and Live-In Aides for verification of references and permission to seek criminal background history.

Landlord References: Landlord references will be required for up to five (5) years, including the present landlord. Applicants, who have been previous homeowners, must be able to demonstrate that they have made mortgage payments in a timely manner.

Applicants, who have had no previous rental or homeownership history, must provide references from people they lived with during the last five years. Further, such Applicants must agree to monthly inspections of their apartment to continue until management deems that the Applicant is maintaining the apartment in a clean, safe and sanitary condition.

Unfavorable landlord or professional references may result in removal from the waiting list.

Credit History: Credit reports will be ordered for each Applicant. The credit report will be reviewed to determine the Applicant's history of meeting financial obligations including payments for rent, utilities, loans, revolving credit cards, and other obligations. Applicant's credit history must be acceptable to management before they will be approved to occupy a unit. The credit report will be reviewed to:

1. confirm current address;
2. confirm credit sources included on the application;
3. confirm current and past employment listed on the application; and
4. to determine whether the Applicant has an acceptable credit history.

Applicants, whose credit histories are unacceptable, will be declined and removed from the waiting list. An unacceptable credit history may include the following: past-due payments of more than 90 days; a history of repeated insufficient fund checks; derogatory credit (repossessions, foreclosures, judgments, collections, charge-offs, liens, bankruptcy not yet discharged, etc); delinquent or charge off debt due other apartment communities; or unpaid utility company collections which would prohibit applicant from obtaining services. The lack of credit history or past due payments or derogatory credit relating to medical expense or student loans will not be considered as grounds for declining an Applicant. Consideration will be granted when current credit history demonstrates a pattern of improvement; history of rent payment overshadows other debt issues or Applicant can demonstrate acceptable reasons for credit history. Applicants may wish to provide an explanation that evidences efforts to correct credit deficiencies through payment plans or other work out solutions. If such explanation is acceptable to management, further screening may be conducted and written confirmation of payment plans may be required from the creditor(s).

In the event of decline based upon credit, the Applicant has 14 days to provide an explanation and request further consideration. Management will provide a copy of Applicant's credit report upon request. It is the Applicant's responsibility to contact the credit-reporting agency to resolve any items that have been incorrectly reported.

Criminal Activity Reports:

A criminal activity report will be ordered for each Applicant, and an Applicant with a history that includes felonious crimes, serious misdemeanors, Drug-Related crimes, violent crimes, or sexual crimes will be declined and removed from the waiting list. Reports will be obtained from local and/or state records. Consideration may be granted to Applicants with past criminal records occurring five or more years in the past with no further criminal record. If the Applicant has resided in a state other than Idaho and has a past felony conviction, a report will be required from that state or federal organization. Applicants will be required to certify that they or members of their household are not Registered Sex Offenders. Registered Sex Offenders will not be admitted to the apartment community.

1. Failure to meet one or more of the screening criteria.

7. Inability to appropriately maintain housing in a decent safe and sanitary condition.
8. Applicant is single, under 18 years of age and has never been emancipated through marriage under Idaho law.

10. History of unjustified and chronic nonpayment of rent and financial obligations.
11. History of disturbing the quiet enjoyment of others.
12. A risk of intentional damage or destruction to the unit or surrounding premises by the Applicant or those under the Applicant's control.
13. History of violence and harassment of others.
14. History of violations of the terms of previous rental agreements such as destruction of a unit or failure to maintain a unit in a decent, safe, and sanitary condition.
15. Criminal history includes felony or misdemeanor convictions for Drug Related Activity, violent crimes, sexual crimes, physical violence against persons or property, fraud, dishonesty or any other criminal activity (excepting traffic violations) which, at the sole discretion of management, is deemed a risk to the well being of the community.
16. Illegally using a controlled substance or abusing alcohol in a way that may interfere with the health, safety and well being of other residents. Waiver of this requirement is subject to Applicant demonstrating they are no longer engaging in such activity and producing evidence of participation in or completion of a supervised rehabilitation program.

All declined applications and supportive documentation shall be maintained at the management agent's home office in a manner that assures confidentiality.

Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005: In accordance with the Act, admission to the apartment community will not be denied on the basis that the Applicant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking if Applicant otherwise qualifies for admission.
